

Are you committed to improving the lives of LGBT+ young people?

Creating safer spaces through positive LGBT+ inclusion and visibility

What does it involve?

The Rainbow Flag Award is a quality assurance framework with a focus on positive LGBT+ inclusion, for all organisations where young people exist.

Effectively implementing The Rainbow Flag Award will help you meet your legal, statutory, moral and Ofsted requirements to be LGBT+ inclusive.

“Diversity is celebrated across the school. Staff and pupils are rightly proud of achieving [...] The Rainbow Flag Award for their commitment to inclusion and the prevention of homophobic, biphobic and transphobic bullying.”
Ofsted Report - The Amicus School

We will support you to take a whole-organisation approach to LGBT+ inclusion, across six key areas:

Schools

SKILLED TEACHER	SUPPORTIVE GOVERNORS & PARENTS	EFFECTIVE POLICIES
INCLUSIVE CURRICULUM	PASTORAL SUPPORT	STUDENT VOICE

For Primary Schools, Secondary Schools, SEND Schools and Alternative Provisions.

Youth Organisations

SKILLED STAFF	POSITIVE OUTREACH	EFFECTIVE POLICIES
INCLUSIVE WELCOME	PROACTIVE SUPPORT	YOUTH VOICE

For FE Colleges, Youth Services, Youth Clubs, Uniformed Organisations and other youth focused organisations.

How does it work?

Most organisations complete the Rainbow Flag Award in one year.

What people say about The Rainbow Flag Award:

“The process has been enlightening and supported us all to commit more deeply to our work and support of LGBT+ young people, their families and our staff within. We would actively encourage other youth organisations to work with The Proud Trust and seek the Rainbow Flag Award for their organisation.”
CEO, Early Break.

“I think The Rainbow Flag Award is amazing, it teaches us [...] about how different people live and want to be respected.”
