Including LGBT+ Pupils and Challenging LGBTphobic bullying in Primary Schools

A one day training course, that will encourage primary schools to become more LGBT+ inclusive (lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, plus other related identities), by:

- Offering a deep exploration and explanation of current appropriate terminology across a range of identities;
- Giving real life examples of the school experience of LGBT+ young people, and those from LGBT+ families;
- Giving the skills, tools and knowledge to confidently and consistently recognise, challenge and prevent LGBTphobic language and behaviours;
- Discussing how to meet the legal, Ofsted and moral obligations to doing LGBT+ inclusion work;
- Showcasing a series of age-appropriate and recommended resources for creating LGBT+ inclusive lessons and schools.

This course is aimed at, and is appropriate for, all primary education professionals, including teachers, Head Teachers, SLT, school governors and teaching assistants.

Cost £125* +VAT per delegate
